Greetings to the Household of Faith,

We read in I Cor. 13:13 – “Now abides faith, hope and love, these three; but the greatest of these is love”.

I call these “The Big Three” - They all work together in our lives to give us the power to live in Victory.

I would like to look at faith and hope for a moment. In the great definition of faith in Heb. 1:1 – “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for...” “To me, hope is for something out there in the future – For example: I have never seen or been to the New Heaven and the New Earth but I have a hope that one day I will be there and live in that new place forever. But where does that hope come from? It comes from the Lord Jesus Christ. For in John 14: 1-3, our Lord tells us plainly that He was going away to prepare a place for us in His Father’s house and that He was coming back to this earth to receive us and we would be with Him forever. Praise God Forevermore!

But for that hope to be alive and stay alive in my spirit – I must have faith and continue in faith (Col. 1:23 “If you continue in the Faith...”) of what Jesus is saying here in this promise. Jesus Christ does not only give us this living hope – He is our hope.

Heb. 1:1 - “Now Faith Is” Notice that faith is for now – today – right this moment. What do you need God to do for your life now – today? One of the most important statements that Jesus is saying to us today is in Mark 11:22 – “Have Faith in God” – This is a present tense statement for today – tomorrow – and every day for the rest of our lives.

Three ways to build up your faith and continue in the faith:

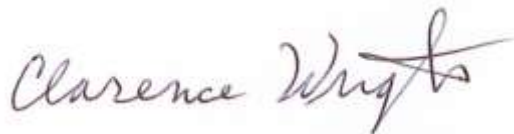

Heb. 12:2 – “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith”.

Rom. 10:17 – “So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God”.

Jude 1:20 – “But, you beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost”.

May we join our faith together in bringing in the great end-time harvest for our Beloved Savior and soon coming King!

In His Service with you,

Clarence Wright
