THE BEST IS YET TO COME

The best is yet to come is a declaration of faith or blessing over the person(s) that you are speaking this to and also you, no doubt, have declared this over others. I have used it over some of my grandchildren and other youth in their graduation card, I have spoken it out in prayer when praying for others, over our staff, graduates, and many have declared this over Living Water Teaching.

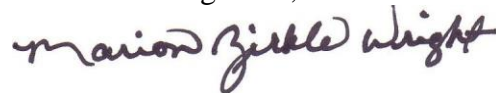

This should not be a catchy little phrase that we should be declaring if we are not using our faith to back up what we are saying. This is something that we are declaring with our faith believing that the best is yet to come for this person, for this family, for this ministry etc. We say it, we believe it, we receive it, and therefore believe that it will come to fruition.

The Lord has been so good to all of us. If you are reading this letter, and are still breathing, then you have something for which to be thankful. However, the Lord wants to do so much more for each of us if we can believe that. He blessed His people under the Old Covenant but in Hebrews 8:6 it tells us that, "He is the mediator of a better covenant, the New Covenant, established on better promises". Because of Calvary, because of the cross when Jesus shed His precious blood that covered all of our sins and brought us into the family of God and because of His resurrection, He has made all things better.

I encourage you to read the book of Hebrews and find out all that Jesus accomplished for us through His death and resurrection. For instance: We have a "better hope" according to Hebrews 7:19; we have a "better testament" Hebrews 7:22; we have "better sacrifices" Hebrews 9:23; a "better country" Hebrews 11:16; a "better resurrection" and "a better thing for us".

I would like to declare and speak out in faith, that "the best is yet to come" for everyone that is reading this letter. Receive this declaration of faith for whatever that you are believing the Lord for: Salvation for a loved one, healing in your marriage, a new job, better salary, a husband, a wife, prosperity, becoming debt free, or wisdom to begin your ministry. There is nothing impossible with our God!

In His Amazing Love,

Marion Z. Wright
