

PREPARING FOR HIS GLORY

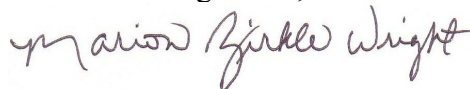

I believe that the body of Christ is wanting to have a move of the Spirit, not only in their own lives, but also in the church. If we really want to see the glory of God operating in our services, then we must create an atmosphere so that miracles and healings can begin to manifest. The moving of the Spirit depends on what the people desire and prepare for.

When the people of God come together with a desire to see God move and come to church with great expectations that something extraordinary will happen, it will happen. But if we just sit on our seats and wait to see what God is going to do, we might be disappointed because God will move where He is invited. Many people go to church as if they were going to work. It has become a habit and they really don't expect anything. We sing our 4-5 songs, welcome the people, take up the offering, and then the pastor preaches. We go home and come back for the mid-week service and do the same thing all over again.

We read in II Chron. 5:13-14 about the dedication of the temple of Solomon. We see that the glory of the Lord filled the house because the musicians and the singers came together in one accord worshipping and praising God. They weren't thinking of where they were going for lunch or what they were going to do in the afternoon; the Bible says that they "were as one". In other words, they were in unity, and had been in prayer, because they wanted to see the glory of the Lord. The Shekinah glory, the divine presence of almighty God, manifested in middle of the praise and worship filling the place with a cloud of His presence. V. 14 says, "the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God".

The Lord is no respecter of persons. If the body of Christ would come to church in prayer, with a strong desire, with great expectations, believing, wanting to see God move, wanting to see the supernatural and the gifts of the Spirit in manifestation, things would begin to happen. God will move in a place where the people prepare the atmosphere so that He can move. He wants to move but He must be invited!
