FOUR SURE ANCHORS OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

We have a weekly service in our U.S. office with the staff and on this occasion when Pastor Clarence and myself were in the office, he was asked to share a word. I thought that it was a very good word and I wanted to share it with you.

In Acts 27:29 we see as Paul sails to Rome, a fierce wind attacks the ship and being concerned that it might break apart, they decide to cast four anchors to keep the ship intact until the storm passed. While reading this, the Lord spoke to Pastor Clarence's heart that there are also "Four Anchors of the Christian Faith".

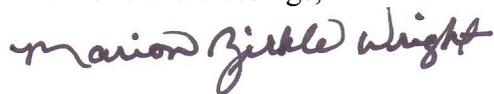

The first anchor is: The virgin birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Mary, the mother of Jesus, was impregnated by the Holy Ghost which meant that the blood in her body was not tainted by sin in any way because the blood that comes from the father, in this case, Joseph, was not in any way connected with the virgin birth of Jesus. It was pure blood!

The second anchor is: The death of Jesus on the cross that carried all our sin, sickness, and poverty and purchased our righteousness, health, and prosperity. God could not die, so He sent Jesus, His son that knew no sin, to the earth to redeem mankind back to Him.

The third anchor is: The resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Without this eternal truth, we would have nothing to base our eternal life on. The grave would be our final resting place but because Jesus arose, we too, one day will rise.

The fourth anchor is: The return of Jesus to this earth for His bride, the church. He said three times in the last chapter of the Bible, God's Holy Word, "Behold or Surely I come quickly". It could be anytime according to Luke 17:26-28 as he describes how life will be on planet earth when Jesus returns. These four anchors will keep us during these perilous times that we are living in according to 2 Timothy and secure our safety until we hear the sound of the trumpet. The most important question that you can ask yourself----am I ready?

With love and blessings,

Marion Z. Wright
